ORDER GRANTING CONTINUANCE
AND AMENDING SCHEDULING ORDER

The matters before the court is Defendant's Unopposed Motion for Continuance filed Wednesday, June 29, 2022 [dkt. #206], after reviewing the motion and there being no objection from counsel for the co-defendant or order severing defendants in this cause of action, it is the opinion of the Court that the motion should be granted and that the trial in this case should be and is continued as to both defendants. The Court further notes that this matter was previously set for a hearing on the Defendants' motions to suppress and motion to sever, however, counsel for defendant was unable to attend and requested a continuance. The motions are currently set for a hearing on Thursday, July 21, 2022.

The Court further finds that the period between Tuesday, July 19, 2022 and Monday, November 14, 2022, is a reasonable period of necessary delay to allow counsel time for preparation for trial and further finds that such period shall be excluded from the time within which the defendant must be brought to trial and that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweighs the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(A).

This case shall proceed on the following amended schedules:

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 11(c) and the holding of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in United States of America v. Ellis, 547 F.2d 863 (5th Cir. 1977), the deadline for notifying the Court of any plea bargain or plea agreement entered into by the parties in this cause is Thursday, November 03, 2022. The Court will not accept a plea agreement after the aforementioned deadline. Should a plea agreement be reached and filed in this case and absent written objection filed contemporaneously therewith, this case will be referred to a United States Magistrate Judge for the purpose of administering the plea of guilty and the Fed. R. Crim. P. 11 allocution, subject to final approval and the imposition of sentence by the United States District Court.
